Forecast for Wednesday 08 Sep 2021

Weather: A fine dry, warm day for the most part with occasional bright spells, which soon burn away any early mist and fog patches in and around the foothills. However risk of some drizzly showers feeding from the south through to mid-morning, then chance of more active showers spreading from the south late in the day

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 700m: 90% plus with early patchy cloud likely to be restricted below this level, while bases in later showers generally above this level.

Visibility: Generally good occasionally moderate in haziness, moderate or poor in any showers, very poor in any early hill fog generally below 600m.
